You Don't Want to Miss June 5 - 7 at ClaySpace!

Gone to Pot

You're not going to want to miss the June 5, 6 and 7 at ClaySpace Ceramic Arts Center. At our First Friday (7 -9 pm), you can shop our annual "Gone to Pot: Slightly Imperfect, No Longer Loved, Artistically Moved On" sale, vote in our annual t-shirt design contest (winner announced at 9 pm) and see our newest show, "Gardens of Clay" by Resident Artist Kate Keilty in our Gallery and enjoy some refreshments.

"Gone to Pot" continues on Second Chance Saturday from 10 am - 2 pm.

On Sunday, from 12 - 3 pm, you can join Kate for her artist reception. Refreshments will be served.

ClaySpace Merchandise is Coming!

You can help decide on the design for our new line of ClaySpace merchandise. Designs are posted in the studio outside the Multipurpose Room. One vote per person. Winner will be announced at First Friday June 5 at 9 pm. This will be an annual event. Look for more details soon.

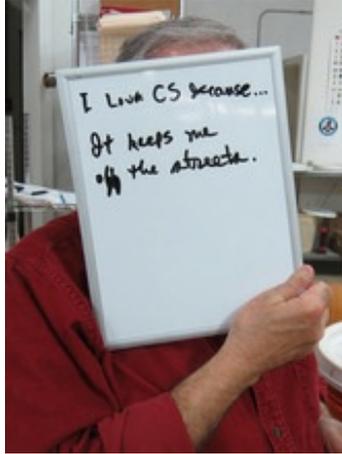

8030: remembering 22 veterans lost every day

Thank you to all the artists who helped make 8030: remembering 22 veterans lost every day a success. Eighteen pieces were sold! The proceeds were donated to the Midwest Shelter for Homeless Veterans, a nonprofit organization, founded by Vietnam War veteran Bob Adams and Gulf War veteran Dirk Enger. It is located in Wheaton and provides support to veterans of any era, as well as their families, throughout DuPage, Kendall, Kane, Will Grundy, LaSalle and DeKalb Counties. We would also like to thank Anita Carmona, Suicide Prevention Coordinator from Edward Hines Jr. VA Hospital, for speaking at our opening and Teresa Hartman, Orland Park Veterans Center, for attending our reception. Thanks also to the Lisle Library for partnering with us for the showing of the documentary

ClaySpace Ceramic Arts Center is a 501 (c)3 non-profit studio located in Chicago's western suburbs and is a home to a community of 55 Resident Artists. We offer ceramics and glass fusing classes and host workshops by nationally and internationally recognized visiting artists. Our Gallery is full of art for purchase and inspiration.

"Surviving Peace." A big thank you to Mara Pelecis, founder of the 8030 Project, for making us aware of this cause and her support. Images of all the work will be included on her website and used to promote awareness.

Don't forget you can help ClaySpace by shopping with Amazon Smile! Thank for your support.
